JOHN BULL ROARING.

Momentous Politics on in Earnest.

Ipswich Leads Off Today in Polling Ahead of the Statutory Time.

Scenes of Disorder are Almost Unparalleled and Crowds Cannot be Held.

Bernard Shaw and Meredith Picturesque—Lady Warwick Woos Laborers.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The election of a new British Parliament, which will temporarily at least, decide the question of tariffs for the nation, will begin in earnest tomorrow. The first polling will take place in the old-fashioned borough of Ipswich, but this, curiously enough, may be invalidated subsequently as a result of the determination of the officials to hold the election a day ahead of the statutory time. After next Saturday, results will begin to pour in, and by January 19 two-thirds of the constituencies will have voted, and the degree of support to be accorded to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman will be to all intents decided.

Not for many years has there been a general election so rich in metaphor and abuse. Scarce a day passes but the great leaders on both sides meet with obstructions.

UNPARALLELED DISORDER. The disorder is almost unparalleled, and there are striking evidences, especially in the north of England, of how little the average electors are respectful of persons in the old days.

SPECTACULAR FEATS. To the unusual element of rowdiness is added the picturesque element supplied by the introduction of such figures as Bernard Shaw and George Meredith. Shaw, on a Liberal platform telling the workmen that "the one thing you cling to is your poverty." It is a sight for true stagegoers. Naturally he swelled the rising tide of metaphor by describing John Burns, the labor representative, and the new president of the local government board, as the "government's new hat," adding, characteristically, that the other parts of the government's body were wearing shabby clothes.

George Meredith dilates on Chamberlain's lean, long head and adventurous nose, and then sums him up as the "miserable old fellow" who is endeavoring to bring back England at a furious speed. Meredith added: "It would be a demented country that believed in him." Chamberlain's latest retort compares the Premier's policy with that of the Queen of Hearts in "Alice in Wonderland."

MURCHESON NOT BUSY.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A.M. J. MURCHESON, the Premier of the United Kingdom, is not busy with the reflection of Premier Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman to represent Stirling District, the Unionist candidate, Murcheson, being seriously ill, which caused the Unionist commission to abandon their contest.

COURT BEAUTY'S SUCCESS.

Lady Warwick, the court beauty known as the "democratic countess," took a hand in the election struggle today, addressing her "comrades and friends," the dock laborers of Westham, in support of the dock laborers candidate Will Thorne. The Countess, in a dainty Parisian costume, braved the bleak wind while from a tradesman's wagon she urged the laborers to work to secure an independent labor party in the House of Commons. She asserted that she was convinced of the ultimate victory of the democratic movement, and prophesied that the new government would not last longer than eighteen months.

"You workers," said the Countess, "are the empire. Remember your responsibility, and sow the seeds of freedom for your children."

FALSE PROPHET APPEARS.

Man Representing Himself as Spirit of St. John is Followed by Thousands of Porto Ricans.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—[A report from Manuel Pardo to the American Tract Society that in Ponce, Porto Rico, a false prophet has appeared, representing himself as the spirit of St. John, the Evangelist, preaching in the villages of the district and that a great many people follow him.

WHO CAN TAKE HARPER'S POST?

MANY PROMINENT EDUCATORS ARE BEING CONSIDERED

Dean Judson, the Temporary Head of the University of Chicago—Rockefeller is Said to Have a Choice. Great Memorial Chapel to be Dedicated by the Trustees.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Although a president of the University of Chicago will probably not be elected for a year, numerous educators are being mentioned to succeed Dr. Harper. Dr. Harry Pratt Judson, dean of the faculties and head of the Department of International Law, who has been acting president during Dr. Harper's illness, will become temporary president until the trustees name a successor. A difficulty caused by the provision of the university charter that the president must be a Baptist in good standing may be overcome, it is said, by the grant of a new charter.

John D. Rockefeller is said to favor the election of President William H. P. Faunce of Brown University. Dr. Faunce was once pastor of the Fifth Avenue Church, New York, which Rockefeller attends. It is declared, however, that Rockefeller will not attempt to displace a trustee. Other mentioned are E. Benjamin Andrews of the University of Nebraska, Dr. Joseph Gould Schurman of Cornell and Prof. Judson, Butler and Vincent of the University of Chicago faculty. Dr. Harper is said to have received a salary of $15,000 a year.

The trustees of the university today practically decided to dedicate a great memorial chapel to Dr. Harper. Private services over the body of Dr. Harper were held today at the family residence. Addresses were made by Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, pastor of Central Church; Dr. T. W. Goodspeed, secretary of the University of Chicago; and Rev. J. L. Jackson, pastor of the Hyde Park Baptist Church. The only persons present, aside from the members of Dr. Harper's immediate family, were the members of the University Senate and the University Council.

The body will remain in charge of the family until Saturday, when it will be conveyed to Haskell Hall, on the University grounds, where it will lie in state until Sunday at 2 o'clock, when the public funeral will be held. The interment will be at Oakwood Cemetery, a short distance from the home of the Harper family.

SIBLEY TO DRAW OUT.

Congressman Announces Retirement from Public Life—Is Now a Millionaire.

FRANKLIN (Pa.) Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Congressman Joseph C. Sibley, popularly recognized as the representative of Standard Oil and Pennsylvania Railroad interests, in Congress, today formally announced to his constituents in this district his retirement from public life. He was originally a Republican, then a Populist, then a Democrat, and finally, when the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Standard Oil took an interest in his career, a Republican again.

Sibley is now rated as a millionaire, and is a brother-in-law and intimate associate of Gen. Charles Miller, millionaire manufacturer and commander of the Pennsylvania National Guard who married Sibley's sister and divorced her.

NEGRO LABOR FAILS THE SOUTH.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11.—At the meeting of the Cotton Association today an address by Charles Scott of Rosedale, Miss., on foreign labor in southern cotton fields provoked considerable discussion. Mr. Scott said the conclusion could not be avoided that the negro laborer in the South had finally become a woeful failure. He gave reasons for believing that only Italy could the South look for an avenue of escape from its difficulties.

CIGARS BY CONVICTS.

Ohio Pen is Full of Consumption.

Tuberculosis Germs Mix With Choice Brands of Weed for Tobacco Users.

Demand So Great, Contractors Cry Out for Increase of Prisoners.

Those Set to Work Acquire Disease—"Chaws" and Sputum Ad Lib.

WELLSVILLE (O.) Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Starting charges are made against the Ohio State Penitentiary at Columbus by Anthony Clunk of Elkton, O., who has just been released from that institution. Clunk, who spent nearly two years there for killing a man who had been intimate with his wife, maintains the respect of the community in spite of his convict record. Broken in health, he has made charges against the penitentiary management that will not be allowed to drop.

Clunk says that consumptive persons are compelled to work in the tobacco factory of the prison, and that many well-known brands of cigars and tobacco sent out from there are unquestionably impregnated with tuberculosis germs.

Clunk says that, day after day, prisoners whose physical condition is such that they should either be in bed or in the prison hospital, are driven to work in the convict cigar factory by heartless contractors. Even food, he declares, is sold within the prison walls by contractors, and prisoners are purposely fed on starvation rations to force them to appeal to friends and relatives outside for funds with which to buy more suitable food, which is sold at exorbitant prices.

The demand for prison-made cigars, Clunk says, is so great that the contractors are crying out for more men to help along their work in the penitentiary. Those who are sent to work in the factory, Clunk says, speedily contract consumption, if they have not already been seized by it. No effort is made to take the ordinary precautions against infection from sputum, and the men while at work are permitted to chew tobacco and expectorate on the floor.

Harriman and Stuyvesant Fish Show Tax Man Why They Should Not be Assessed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edward H. Harriman, head of the Southern Pacific Railroad system, and Stuyvesant Fish, president of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, were among those who appeared before Frank A. O'Donnell, president of the Board of Taxes and Assessments, today, to swear off their personal assessments. Mr. Harriman was assessed upon $150,000 and Mr. Fish upon $100,000.

KANSAS STATESMAN SCORES STANDARD OIL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Standard Oil's defiance of the Attorney-General of Missouri to get at the facts of the great corporation's business was today scored by Representative Campbell of Kansas, who last year brought about the investigation of the Standard Oil by James R. Garfield.

"Rogers is indifferent as to what the courts expect of him," said Campbell. "He and his company are a law unto themselves. The Standard Oil monopoly and its officials have always been indifferent to both the law and the courts. The monopoly during the days of its creation and throughout its existence has paid little attention to either the law or the courts, has violated the law and held the courts in contempt."

The Standard Oil monopoly which Mr. Rogers so fittingly represents has robbed the railroads and crushed competitors with the same contempt for law that Rogers now has for the courts, and it has known no law either of God or man, except alone the decree of the Standard Oil monopoly in dealing with the producers of crude petroleum.

"His attitude on the witness stand was like that of a party to a fraudulent conspiracy, and makes it easy for the public to believe all that has been said against the Standard Oil monopoly and its methods. It is only fair to him probably to say that at this time he is unconscious of the fact that his manner on the witness stand was contemptuous to business, the public and the court whose authority he defied."

SHE WAS GLAD OF IT.

Mrs. John Waigren Rejoiced When Husband Was Killed—Saved the Divorce Costs.

ROCK ISLAND (Ill.) Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Coroner Eckhart today called up Mrs. John Waigren of New Windsor, and, as delicately as he could, informed her, her husband had been killed by a train.

"I'm glad of it," was the startling response.

"How's that?" asked the coroner.

"I said I was glad of it. It will save me the expense of divorce proceedings."

"CON" ACTED AS MIDWIFE.

NEW ORLEANS WOMAN BECOMES MOTHER IN STREET CAR.

Amateur Surgeon With Jack Knife and a Piece of Twine Assists Little "Miss Blank's" Advent Upon the Scene—Bonds the Twain Home in a Carriage.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] On a Claiborne avenue car between 1:30 and 2 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. "Blank"—she did not tell her name, but gave a fictitious one, and "Blank" is equally as good as the fictitious one for newspaper purposes—gave birth to a little daughter. All of this occurred between Louis street and the street railway barn on Claiborne avenue car No. 120.

Little Miss "Blank," or whatever her name may be, is, of course, not the only child born on a streetcar, but there is another feature, the one in which the New Orleans Railway Company figures through an able agent. It appears that at the moment it was impossible to secure physicians and trained nurses. The conductor was equal to the emergency. He is a married man, and is reported to have six children of his own. He is a Frenchman. At the street railway office, the pay roll not being handy, they could not spell his name, but thought it was spelled "Bruen." A physician and a trained nurse would probably have accomplished no more than the amateur surgeon, whose sole instrument and equipment consisted of a jack-knife and a piece of twine, but he wrapped little Miss "Blank" in her mother's petticoat, and then called an ambulance, after having sidetracked his car near the barn on account of the emergency.

JEROME AIDS REFORM.

Secretary Root Secures His Services Against Standard Oil and the Pennsylvania Road.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Travers Jerome, district attorney of New York, will open the campaign for reform in Allegheny and Pittsburgh against the combined influence and millions of the Pennsylvania Railroad and Standard Oil. The reform leaders played Jerome as a trump card today. Secretary of State Elihu Root aided the Reform Committee in its efforts to secure Jerome, who has promised to come if he can possibly spare time from his official duties.

Root was induced to lend his aid because he knows of the conditions existing here, and he is led to believe that should the political powers win, supported by Standard Oil and Pennsylvania Railroad money, a condition of affairs would speedily exist in the western end of Pennsylvania such as existed in Philadelphia before the recent political upheaval there.

ROCK ISLAND BLOCMADE.

Commissioner Kilbey and Other Salvation Army Officials in Storm-bound Train.

EL PASO (Tex.) Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The blockade of the Rock Island Railroad again is complete from drifting snow. Commissioner Kilbey and other high officials of the Salvation Army are in the storm-bound train, and may not reach Los Angeles in time for their proposed Saturday-night appearance.

BRYAN IS A DATTO NOW.

Nebraska Made Mindanao Chief and Saluted by Native Artillery.

DULUAN (Mindanao) Jan. 11.—W. J. Bryan was today created a datto and saluted by fifty pieces of native artillery, after which he was conveyed along the river to Datto Plang's palace in a royal vinta (a small boat), manned by forty Moros. There, he received many presents.

Mr. Bryan says it has been the most interesting day that he has spent in the Orient.

OLIGARCHY ALARMED.

Insurgents Gaining Strength.

Fight Against Statehood Bill Beginning to Worry the House Leaders.

Fifty-one Republicans Now Pledged to Vote Against Joint Statehood.

Enough Others Counted on to Assure the Defeat of the Measure.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The oligarchy of the House is very much alarmed tonight over the strength that has been gained by the "insurgents" in their fight against the passage of the Statehood bill. The alarming feature in the minds of the leaders does not apply so much to the prospective defeat of the Statehood bill as it does to the probability of the leaders losing control of the House on other important matters which will come before Congress for consideration after disposition of the Philippine tariff bill and the Statehood bill.

The advocates of rate legislation and ship subsidy and other important measures realize that if it is possible for Representative Babcock or any other member of the House to organize a sufficient number of Representatives to defeat legislation agreed upon by the leaders, they will have great difficulty in securing the passage of any administration measures. It is for this reason that the Speaker and friends of the administration are making a strong fight against the "insurgents."

The leader of the "insurgents" tonight stated that they already have the names of fifty-one Republicans signed to an agreement to vote against the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one State and New Mexico and Arizona as another. He also stated that twelve other Republicans who will not sign the agreement will vote with them. Fifty-six Republican votes will be required to defeat the bill.

On the Philippine tariff, the "insurgents" still have hopes of securing an amendment to the committee bill, which will place the reduction at 50 per cent, instead of 25. Tonight they have completely abandoned hopes of defeating the bill or having it amended so as to retain the duty of 75 per cent. of the duty imposed by the Dingley law.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

SPRITTED TARIFF DEBATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The House today consisted more of party maneuvering for campaign material than of discussion of the question at issue. The tariff was the text of a speech by Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio, who began the debate, and of an extended reply by Mr. Williams, the minority leader. The speech of Mr. Grosvenor was spiced with witticisms and enlivened with interruptions from Champ Clark, at whom Mr. Grosvenor aimed most of his arguments.

Mr. Williams outlined again the specific tariff doctrine of the Democratic party and held that the Republican tariff was not, as was often claimed, responsible for the prosperity of the country. To prove this, he cited the prosperity of Canada, Mexico and other countries at the present time, and the business depression of those countries during the hard times of 1893. Mr. Adams of Wisconsin opposed the bill, but advocated a readjustment of the tariff on business principles.

Mr. McKinley of California delivered his first speech in the House in favor of the pending measure, and pointed a finger of warning toward the growing industries of Japan.

The debate on the bill undoubtedly will close with the session of Saturday, and the measure will be put on its passage Monday.

that party since the day of Andrew Jackson.

However, Mr. Grovernor repudiated Democratic votes for the pending bill. He did not vote such votes, especially when they were given on the ground that it was a step in the direction of free trade.

Philippine tobacco was characterized as "poor, miserable stuff," by Mr. Grovernor, and although the State raised tobacco, he did not favor competition from the Philippine tobacco, which would not sell in the Cincinnati market for anything.

"Would the gentleman send a box of the average Manila cigars to a constituent whose vote he wanted?" asked Mr. Longworth.

"Well, I don't smoke, myself, but I would not send one to my interrogator," laughingly replied Mr. Grovernor.

Reviewing some of the things which have been said against the Philippines in the debate, Mr. Grovernor said none of them equalled the things said by Daniel Webster about the inhabitants of the fourteen States and Territories acquired by the Louisiana Purchase.

"I believe," he said, "that the Philippines will become one of the greatest jewels in the crown of American achievement."

DEMOCRATIC FAITH.

Mr. Grovernor declared his intention of devoting the remainder of his remarks to the Democratic faith in tariff revision. Particularly did he want to reply to Mr. Clark of Missouri regarding his quotation in a recent speech from the book of James G. Blaine, which he said, was a contradiction of the Republican platform of 1894, that "Mr. Clark's quotation of 'Blaine' is a contradiction of the Republican platform of 1894."

Mr. Clark's quotation of "Blaine," he contended, was included in the context, which was needed to make the statement complete.

Mr. Grovernor substantiated the remarks of Mr. Dingley that he wanted to reply to Mr. Clark of Missouri regarding his quotation in a recent speech from the book of James G. Blaine, which he said, was a contradiction of the Republican platform of 1894, that "Mr. Clark's quotation of 'Blaine' is a contradiction of the Republican platform of 1894."

DEMOCRATIC DELICACY

Alabama Politicians Serve Quail. Death Notice on Morgan and Pettus.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Notice that one or both of them is expected to die during the next four years has been served upon Morgan and Pettus, the aged Senators from Alabama, by the Democratic Executive Committee of that State. This remarkable action has caused a lot of talk here in Washington, but neither Morgan nor Pettus will discuss it.

In resolutions adopted by the party's Executive Committee at Montgomery, provision is made for a primary in which there shall be determined whom the Governor shall appoint as Senator, in case either or both the present Senators should die during the Governor's four-year term.

There is a lively fight over the Governorship, and this provision is made to prevent the candidates entering into deals with aspirants of the Senate. The committee's plan will give the voters a chance to express their choice, thus taking the question out of the gubernatorial race.

The woods are full of aspiring statesmen, who have for years been expecting that death might create a vacancy in the State's representatives in the United States Senate. Former Governor "Joe" Johnston, who ran against Senator Morgan in 1900, did not carry a single county in the State.

but there is an outside world. Even in Massachusetts, which the gentleman from Ohio said was brought up by hand on the tariff, a bottle of pap given her early, and all that she had to do was to suck."

Asserting ironically that he would show that the Dingley tariff had produced record-breaking prosperity in Canada, Mexico and the Argentine Republic, as well as the United States, Mr. Williams reviewed the greatly increased production and commerce of those countries.

DEMOCRATIC TARIFF FAITH.

Democratic faith in the tariff, Mr. Williams said, could be expressed in a few words: First, a tariff is a tax; second, it is a tax on the consumer; third, all taxes ought, as nearly as possible, to be levied in proportion to the burden-bearing capacity of the taxpayer.

The genuine ideal Democratic tariff would put all sorts of imports into three general classes—necessaries, comforts and luxuries. On necessities, a very low tariff; on comforts, perhaps some of the prime necessities of life would be on the free list. Luxuries, however, which the like would be taxed to the smugling point; upon comforts an intermediate tax would be levied.

"It is necessary first to find out how much money is necessary to run the government honestly and economically and levy the tax to meet the need. When you have done this question settled, and until it is settled right, it will still be agitated."

Mr. Grovernor substantiated the remarks of Mr. Dingley that he wanted to reply to Mr. Clark of Missouri regarding his quotation in a recent speech from the book of James G. Alabama Politicians Serve Quail. Death Notice on Morgan and Pettus.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Notice that one or both of them is expected to die during the next four years has been served upon Morgan and Pettus, the aged Senators from Alabama, by the Democratic Executive Committee of that State. This remarkable action has caused a lot of talk here in Washington, but neither Morgan nor Pettus will discuss it.

In resolutions adopted by the party's Executive Committee at Montgomery, provision is made for a primary in which there shall be determined whom the Governor shall appoint as Senator, in case either or both the present Senators should die during the Governor's four-year term.

There is a lively fight over the Governorship, and this provision is made to prevent the candidates entering into deals with aspirants of the Senate. The committee's plan will give the voters a chance to express their choice, thus taking the question out of the gubernatorial race.

The woods are full of aspiring statesmen, who have for years been expecting that death might create a vacancy in the State's representatives in the United States Senate. Former Governor "Joe" Johnston, who ran against Senator Morgan in 1900, did not carry a single county in the State.

PROF. GUNTON SUE

BY ALLEGED "WIFE."

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prof. George Gunton, known as a writer on industrial and economic topics, and his wife, Rebecca Lowe Gunton, have been made defendants in a suit begun in the Supreme Court by "Amelia R. Gunton, who asserts that she is the legal wife of Prof. Gunton. The identity of the plaintiff is hidden, as according to the papers in the case is refused and counsel on that side withhold all information relative to her suit.

In a general way, the nature of the suit was revealed yesterday by a preliminary motion before Judge Glidersleeve in a special term of the Supreme Court as one for a decree of separation from Gunton and one for recompense for alleged alienation of his affections. Parker, Hatch & Sheehan are counsel for Amelia R. Gunton, which name is believed to be one of convenience assumed by a woman well known in Eastern society circles.

Hendley, Lauterbach & Johnson appeared as counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Gunton. A. R. McFarren of Hendley, Lauterbach & Johnson applied to Judge Glidersleeve to have the summons in both suits set aside on the ground that a process-server had simply thrown the papers into an automobile in which defendants were riding. After a tilt between him and former Judge Hatch, who asserted that the process was both legal and binding, Judge Glidersleeve took the papers, and withheld his decision.

Prof. Gunton, who is the editor of Gunton's Magazine, was born in England. About two years ago he married Mrs. Rebecca Lowe in Atlanta, Ga. She was for four years president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and is a member of wealthy Georgia family. She presided at a meeting of women in Los Angeles two years ago.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

ONE of the charming functions of the week was the decidedly recherché little tea given yesterday by Mrs. Edward Taylor Perkins of Gramercy Place in compliment to Miss Maudie Roach, who is the guest of Mrs. Charles M. Shannon of West Sixth street.

The home was decorated with a profusion of cut flowers and ferns, and the tea table contained pink roses and ferns and pink candelabra. Assisting the hostess in receiving were: Mrs. Charles M. Shannon, Mrs. Fred Griffith, Mrs. Harry Turner, Mrs. J. B. Lippincott, Mrs. Sheldon Borden, Mrs. Lucia Burnett and Misses Clara Carpenter and May Ridgeway.

About seventy-five friends greeted the hostess and her attractive young guest of honor in the course of the afternoon.

Mrs. Maier Entertains.
Mrs. Fred Maier of No. 1988 Hobart boulevard opened her beautiful home on Tuesday afternoon to members of a neighborhood bridge club. The house was decked with bright blossoms and both the honor prize and the prize awarded for the most points, fell to Mrs. Charles R. Hadley. One was a pretty little hand-painted vase adorned with roses and the other a brass jar. Sixteen guests were entertained.

For Mrs. Maria.
Mrs. Edward B. Tufts entertained yesterday at the California Club with an exquisitely appointed luncheon in compliment to Mrs. Arthur Tombs Maria, who is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Jerne, of Arapahoe street. A basket overflowing with violets was in the center of the table, and the place was marked with hand-painted cards adorned with violets, and the names in gold. Fetching souvenirs were the fancy baskets filled with violets at each place.

After luncheon the guests were entertained with a box party at the Belasco Theater. Guests at the delightful affair included Mrs. Ezra T. Stinson, Mrs. Arthur Braly, Mrs. Jack Jerne, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Albert H. Busch, Mrs. Marie, Mrs. E. Allison, Mrs. Carey Friedlander, Mrs. Howard Bundren, Miss Katherine Jackson and Miss Vera Jerne.

Miss Hudson Weds.
A wedding of much interest solemnized recently by Rev. Robert McIntyre in his study, was that of charming blue-eyed Miss Annie Stratton Hudson, daughter of Mrs. W. G. Baylie, and John Floyd Wilson, late of Kansas City, Kansas. The bride and groom were present at the ceremony.

The bride, who is an unusually pretty and attractive girl, with soft violet eyes and fluffy brown hair, wore a becoming traveling gown of pale blue broadcloth, made with elaborate trimmings, with white lace and a picture hat of blue, with blue plumes. Her only ornaments were some beautiful pearl jewels. These were worn twenty-five years ago by her mother on her wedding day, and before that graced the wedding finery of her grandmother.

After the ceremony the wedding party enjoyed a luncheon at the Hotel Angelus, the table being decked with pink and white flowers and ferns. The bride is a Tennessee girl. She has many friends here. Mr. Wilson is a prominent young business man recently from Kansas City. He and his bride have gone to a short trip, and other reports for a short time, will be at home to their friends in their home, home after February 1, at No. 5204 Kingsley street.

To Attend Miss Traynor's Wedding.
Miss Jane Wilschire, Miss Ruth Foster and Mr. and Mrs. E. Avery McCarthy left for San Francisco, where they have gone to attend the wedding of Miss Alice Traynor and Clarence Oddie. Miss Wilschire and Miss Foster will be the bridesmaids.

For Miss McCarthy.
Mrs. Charles D. Vile of No. 2628 Romeo street entertained yesterday with an informal tea in compliment to Mrs. D. E. McCarthy of Evansville, Ind., who is in Los Angeles for the winter. The affair was also planned as a farewell to Mrs. Charles C. Carpenter, who with her two daughters, Misses Clara and Susie Carpenter, will leave soon for a European trip. About twenty-five guests were entertained.

Mrs. Newlin to be Here.
I. T. Newlin, for many years connected with the management of the Hotel Del Coronado, is here with his wife, to make their home. Mrs. Newlin was formerly Miss Eugenia Harrison of Coronado, noted for her beautiful voice and charming personality. She doubtless will prove an acquisition to the smart crowd in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Holden is Guest.
Mrs. S. P. Holden was guest of honor on Wednesday evening at an enjoyable "at home" given by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stockton Pope of No. 2024 Oak street.

Guests for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Borden, Rev. and Mrs. Willoughby Rodman, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Means, Mr. and Mrs. Hector Allott, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harrison Chase, Capt. and Mrs. H. Z.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.
Union's Franchise is Not Exclusive. Proposition to Furnish Fuel Won Fight.

The Union Oil Company is seeking prices on fifty to seventy-five miles of eight-inch pipe which will be used in building the Panama pipe line, for which Secretary Taft has recommended that a franchise be granted. As the conditions are that the line is to be completed and in operation by August 1, it is expected that the company will lose no time in beginning work. Although there should not be the slightest difficulty in getting it finished in seven months time.

It develops that the Union was the only one of the six applicants that made a definite proposition to furnish fuel, and named a fixed price. This feature, which the Canal Commission at first struck out, is declared to have been the strongest factor in inducing Secretary Taft to favor the Union's application against others. It is, however, expressly provided that the franchise is not to be exclusive, and is revocable at discretion, so that others may perhaps get similar permits. The Union also agrees to build in American shipyards the tank steamers necessary in addition to its present fleet, to convey oil to and from the isthmus.

The Union Oil Company has received advice from Washington through its San Francisco office confirming the Times dispatches, but giving no additional details.

The Art Calendar for 1930 issued by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association is an unquestioned triumph of artists' genius. The five panels are lithographed in twelve colors, picked out with gold, and bound together with the subjects from the brush of Maud Humphrey, are idealized female figures, hand-drawn with the delicate touch and feeling which characterizes Miss Humphrey's work.

DEN FIRE, RY DAMAGE.
offer Loss in Douglas Building Blaze.
Have of Water in the Office and Stores.
Dry Goods Company is Hit Hardest.
The Douglas Building, north of Third and Spring streets, was soon after 4 o'clock morning, and before the fire was under control, the damage was estimated at $100,000. The building is a five-story structure, and the fire started on the fifth floor, where it was burning for some time before it was discovered. The fire was caused by a gas leak, and the gas was ignited by a light. The fire spread rapidly, and the building was soon in flames. The fire department arrived at 4:30 o'clock, and worked for some time before the fire was under control. The damage to the building was extensive, and the fire department is now working to remove the debris. The Douglas Building is a well-known building in Los Angeles, and it is a great loss to the city. The fire department is now working to prevent such fires in the future.

net room. There was small damage done to the furniture or fixtures there, but the walls are thoroughly soaked and may have to be replastered. In the rooms of the Southern Pacific on the second floor the damage is $200. Whittington, tailor, occupies the rooms at No. 211 West Third street. His damage will be covered by probably $200. At No. 207 West Third street is located the Hotel and Traveler's Information Bureau, the offices of the Hawaiian Promotion Committee, and of the Piedmont Air Line. The walls of this room are soaked, and the ceiling plaster has fallen. A loss of $500 is estimated in the office equipment.

Montgomery Brothers refuse to make a statement as to the probable extent of their damage. It is understood, however, that their loss will be light, possibly only a few hundred dollars, as their class of goods would be little affected by water.

The N. B. Blackstone Dry Goods Company. This concern occupies 13,000 square feet of flooring, and members of the firm stated yesterday afternoon that there is not a square foot of surface which seemed to have escaped the water.

The managers of the store were on hand soon after the alarm was given, and at once telephoned to a number of their men, who hurried to their assistance. While the fire companies were literally deluging the upper parts of the building, this corps of men were spreading canvas and oil cloth over all the stock that could reach. Every bit of oil cloth and canvas in the store was used, and extra supplies were secured from other stores.

The stock carried by the firm averages $100,000, and it is believed fully $40,000 will be the damage done by the water. About a third of the stock was kept in the basement, and this is flooded. Both ceilings and side walls of the main floor are water soaked; in many places large patches of plaster have fallen, and it is likely the whole store will have to be replastered.

N. B. Blackstone and his son started the day before for a trip of six weeks to the larger cities of the East on a stock-baiting and pleasure trip. They were intercepted at Ash Fork, Ariz., by telegram, and immediately turned back. They will arrive today.

The Blackstone store employed 100 persons, and the closing down of the establishment temporarily, threw all these people out of employment. Members of the firm expressed the hope yesterday that they would be open for business again within a week's time, but it appears that extensive repairs must first be made.

Nearly every occupant on the floors devoted to offices suffered loss, in many cases serious. The most extensive damage was in the rear portion of the building, particularly in the northwest corner, but scarcely a room in the entire structure escaped damage from the flood poured down from the top floor.

To Raise Entrance Fee.

At the next business meeting of the Board of Directors of the Produce Exchange a resolution will be considered providing that the membership fee for new members be placed at $25 and members admitted by transfers of certificates, $10. Since the organization of the Exchange the benefit of the crop has been felt by all who are engaged in the produce business and it is proposed to make the membership certificate worth something.

Women Hold-up Make Haül.

Two negro women and one man held up Nicholas Weber, an employee of the Sontag Packing Company Wednesday night and relieved him of $25 and a check for $15, according to his statement to the police yesterday. The robbery took place on Los Angeles street between Third and Fourth, at about 9 o'clock. Weber, who is 35 years old, was taken to the police station and held in the conventional way adopted by all footpads in good standing in the highwayman's union, and the victim was glad to escape without his money. The police are working on the case.

STRIKERS SEEK THEIR OLD JOBS.

UNION PRINTERS REALIZE THAT FIGHT IS LOST.

All the Job Offers Turning Out as Much Work as Before Trouble Began—Wives and Little Ones of the Dupes of Union Rulers the Only Real Sufferers.

The rotten bottom dropped completely out of the printers' strike yesterday, when several of the men allowed the information to go out that they are willing, even anxious, to return to their deserted jobs if they can do so without too much publicity.

Peasants that they will be locked out indefinitely, those men desire to get back while there is still a chance.

Beyond the strengthening of the position of the Employing Printers' Association, yesterday was the quietest day since the beginning of the new year. The fight, if the weak showing of the local Typographical Union can be called such, has practically ended.

The Out West Company, boasted of by the strikers as the storm center of their power, worked practically full branded during the nine hours' work yesterday. With the exception of two press feeders, every place in the office presented a busy appearance, and it would be hard to realize from the quantity of work turned out, that a strike had ever been called.

Kingley, Miles & Collins have a complete line of men and there is no anxiety felt among the employers regarding the present outlook in the strike situation.

Through the city the printing establishments are running as usual, and there is scarcely any indication that a walkout has been ordered in an attempt to cripple the working force.

George Rice & Sons say they are experiencing no difficulty in securing all the men they need. The work that is being turned out is up to the standard of that done before the strike.

The cowardly union that who so cruelly slugged young George Wall, the non-union pressman, has not been apprehended. The belief is held that the striking unionists have spirited the man away.

The boast of the disgruntled printers that sympathetic strike is about to be made by the bricklayers and carpenters' unions of this city, has been found to be "hot air" as many of the members of both unions scoff at the idea.

Bricklayers who were interviewed yesterday declared that they are confident with present conditions and said they have no intention of precatating trouble for themselves by walking out, in what they would be vain attempt to help a cause which is already lost.

Several months ago the carpenters had decided to strike some time after the first of the year. The result of the printers' strike is said to have had the effect of dissuading them from any attempt to bring trouble and hardship upon themselves.

An employing printer who is thoroughly conversant with the local strike situation said yesterday regarding the present status of the walk-out:

"The strike is only hurting the wives and children of the men who have foolishly walked out in an attempt to compel their employers to give them what they term 'their rights.'" Instead of earning good wages these men now are compelled to take home
the pittance supplied by the Typographical Union. Could we hear from the wives we would then know some of the hardships being endured.

"For my part I have little respect for a union that compels innocent persons to suffer. I have even less respect for the man, controlled by an unprin-ciple of greed, who allows himself to be dictated to and in consequence provides a scanty living for his family."

"The strike is broken, and the men are aware of this fact. If we can easily for them to come back the better class will return at once. We don't want the others."

RAIN FROM UP THE COAST.

The rain which began in Los Angeles
last evening is moving southward along the coast and, according to last night's indications, Southern California will get a good wetting. A special dispatch to The Times from San Luis Obispo says that the downpour began at 2 p.m. and had increased last evening. Santa Barbara and Ventura both reported that rain began in those places last evening, with good prospect of continuance.

"Did you ever tell George that I was a dove?"
"Did he say I did?"
"Yes."
"Then he loves you all right. I told him you were a pointer."—(Houston Post.)

Two Kinds of Pianos

Pianos are frequently not manufactured at all by those whose names are associated with them, but are merely "assembled," as it is called. All the various parts of an instrument are manufactured on the outside from manufacturers of those parts, and then assembled by the owners of factories, and their names placed upon the completed instrument, and it is called by that name.

But the pianos of Kranich & Bach are actually made by Kranich & Bach in their own factories. That is to say, Kranich & Bach pianos are built by Kranich & Bach. They make their own action, they make their soundboards, they make their keyboards, they make their hammers, they make their pedals. They do not assemble; they actually produce the instrument, and are its makers. Every particle and portion of it is therefore emphatically understood and warranted by them. It can readily be seen what difference this makes in the construction of an article, especially when it is an artistic one, under these two distinctly contrary conditions.

Instruments that are assembled cannot be artistic. Instruments that are built like the Kranich & Bach pianos are artistic and abide under an artistic principle.

LOVELY FRUIT; IT HANGS HIGH.

Buzz-wagon Fleming Wants to Run Water Board.

Municipal Plum Tree Awaits a New Year's Shaking.

Appointive Vacancies May Heal the Sore.

A. P. Fleming, the buzz-wagon man, wants to be president of the Municipal Water Board. The position carries a salary of $5000, and its holder will have more or less say-so in the spending of the $23,000,000 which is to coax the Owens River to the sea. Some people who take pleasure in being deliberately untidied, look upon Mr. Fleming's aspirations as a source of inspiration for the ultimate recovery of the $25 fine which was soaked to him recently for driving his automobile too fast. Friends of the candidate scout this explanation as preposterous.

Cherries are now ripe at the City Hall, great, luscious ones worth all the way from $1000 to $3000 a year. Not for two administrations has so fine a crop dangled from the limbs of the municipal plum tree, waiting for the Mayor and the Council to shake.

Resignations, charter amendments, and expiration of terms, have combined to make the yield of the off political year, usually very light, this time uncommonly heavy. Thronging of office seekers and their friends give to the City Hall corridors just now the air of the closing of a municipal campaign.

Hanging on the highest municipal limb, almost the fruit, is the "Board of Public Works," is the presidency of the water board, with its attached salary of $5000 a year. This place is one of the best at the city's command. The Mayor, the incumbent, J. J. Fay, Jr., expires February 1.

Rumor has it that on that date the resignation of a member of the board will create a second vacancy; but it is only to the chairmanship that salary attaches.

UP TO THE BOARD.

Mayor McAleer will name President Fay's successor, subject, of course, to (doubtful) confirmation by the Council. But the board itself will decide which of its members shall succeed to the Presidency. That is something which is not within the province of either the Mayor or the Council to dictate.

Candidates for this post are coming out of the woods, cautiously at the start, for the political pike under the present administration is in need of repairs. Fleming, former secretary of the Automobile Club of Southern California, and chairman of the last campaign committee of the Municipal League, is grooming himself for the place. His standing with the McAleer administration is said to be problematical.

Yesterday morning at a Council conference a switch was discussed which would place John R. Mathews on the Water Board, making way for a Council favorite on the Board of Public Works.

From a member of the "cabinet" came the suggestion that W. M. Humphreys is likely to be the Mayor's choice. Humphreys is now a member of the Park Board. He was at one time considered a possibility for the Board of Public Works.

MAYOR, E' WONT TALK.

The Mayor declines to discuss the prospective appointment. The members of the Water Board themselves profess to believe that Fay will be his own successor. One water commissioner said yesterday afternoon that during the trip last spring to Owens Valley McAleer practically committed himself to the renomination of Fay.

Several weeks City Hall gossip has placed Commissioner Baker's resignation in the hands of the Mayor. Yearning of denials that were not for publication, Mr. Baker yesterday afternoon said: "I have no thought at the present time of resigning from the board, and you may quote me as saying so."

Concurrent with the vacancy in the Water Board will be that in the Civil Service Commission. Chairman Edelman's term expires February 1. There is no salary attached to the position, and the members of the board will select their own chairman. But by the appointment of a new commissioner Mayor McAleer will have at the first time three of his own appointees on the Civil Service Board. This will mean that his appointees can dictate the selection.

The word was mmm, and while some of the officials may have been "wise" there was nothing doing in so far as an official report of the burglary was concerned. McAleer resides at No. 819 1/2 South Spring street. On excellent authority it is stated that a burglar entered this house a few nights ago and departed $60 to the good. There was no publicity given, and if any investigation is being made it is done quietly.

PLAN TO MIX ASCOT MUSS.

"Solid Three" of Supervisors May Dodge Issue by Putting It to Vote.

A loophole has been discovered by which the Supervisors can gracefully duck out of the responsibility of the Ascot Park gambling matter.

It is said that at the next meeting of the board, it will be moved to refer to the voters the question of abolishing gambling at Ascot. The idea is to place the question on the ballots at the coming election in November. By that time the present race season will be over and the agitation will have died down. On the other hand, it will stop the roar that is now going on.

The Supervisors who voted against having the District Attorney prepare an ordinance against Ascot have been badly worried since the day of the hearing.

Supervisor Patterson, who announced his intention of leaving at once on his leave of absence, will not go now until some later date. He will be on hand for the next meeting. The pressure on the Solid Three has been so great that the "push" back of them realize that something must be done to assuage the public wrath.

retaryship of the commission, a position that pays $1000 a year. Secretary Spaulding has performed the difficult duties of the office in a manner that has placed him in the above criticism; but there is an ancient well, may era of ill feeling—existing between the Mayor and the Secretary of the Civil Service Board, one antecedent of the last political campaign, and it is feared that the old score has not yet healed.

WHO'S WHO HERE?

Since the first of the year a vacancy has existed on the Board of Police Commissioners. This is one of the most important prestige appointments on the list of municipal positions. It will go to a Republican. The Mayor says he has the man selected but is not yet ready to name him. Again who's who is clouded and secret.

COULDN'T STAND ADVERSITY.

Once Wealthy Philadelphia Man Takes Laudanum When His Bank Account is All Gone.

Charles F. Reiber, a former resident of Philadelphia, and at one time a wealthy man, was found dead in his room at the Hotel Lincoln, No. 209 South Hill street, yesterday afternoon by an employee of the place. A cursory examination of the remains indicated that death had resulted from heart failure, but an autopsy performed in the morgue of Peck & Chase last night disclosed the fact that Reiber had died from laudanum poisoning.

The relatives of the unfortunate man in the East were communicated with, and the remains will be held pending instructions as to their disposition. From papers found on Reiber's person, it was shown that only a short time ago he had dealt extensively in real estate. Reiber had been a resident of Los Angeles for several months, and had resided at downtown hotels during most of the time. Two days ago he engaged a room at the Lincoln.

A book on a local bank showing deposits amounting to $100 was found among Reiber's effects, but checks found showed that the entire amount had been withdrawn. Reiber was aged 45. It is thought that after finding his funds exhausted, he became despondent and committed suicide when no opportunity for employment was offered him.

SWEENEY OF SHASTA FOR SUPREME BENCH.

MESSAGE from the great white throne at Sacramento, transmitted semi-officially to Los Angeles, given out yesterday by a high captain of the Regulars, is to the effect that Judge Edward Sweeney of Shasta county by the name of Judge Hall to succeed Justice Van Dyke. The information is that the appointment will be announced officially this week.

Tide is high to run both ends of the middle. If true it is, there will be a degree of ardency created by practical claims mineral-water county holds over the administrative head of the county. The name of Judge Sweeney in this death-made vacancy a prime chance to close the Hall-Melvin breach in the Republican ranks of Alameda county by the naming of Judge Hall to succeed Justice Van Dyke. The appointment of Judge Melvin to the Appellate bench stirred up hot feelings in the breasts of Judge Hall's friends, and naturally they bethought them of the name of Sweeney.

As for Southern California, there are many candidates—mostly of that degree of ardency created by friendship rather than by personal ambition. Superior Judge Sweeney of Shasta county, a position which he held six years and relinquished only to become Superior Judge in 1895. He was elected in 1895 by a handsome majority. In 1902 Judge Sweeney was mentioned for the Supreme bench, but he retired because his candidacy would have hurt the political chances of Edson of Shastayou for Governor. Judge Sweeney is popular and able. He is married and lives at Redding. He has mining interest and owns considerable real estate in Redding.

HOLIDAY COIN FOR ORANGES.

Better Prices Partly Offset a Diminished Crop.

Forced Shipments Steal Lucra from Growers' Pockets.

When Will Southern California Producers Get Wise?

This year's shipments of citrus fruits from Southern California have totaled to date 4840 cars, of which 2720 cars were oranges and 2120 cars lemons. Last year season's figures were 2674 cars of oranges and 2225 cars of lemons, a total of 4899 cars. The excess of the season 1905-6 over 1904-5 to date is 333 cars, of which 46 are oranges and 287 are lemons.

But this season's orange crop for Southern California has been smaller than last season's by from 15 to 20 per cent, as far as money receipts are concerned—the result of small sales prices; the recent cold snap, according to reports made by selling agents, did not affect any appreciable proportion of the crop unpicked to that date.

Where last season's oranges ran from 15 to 18 to the box, this season's range from 12 to 15 to the box, so that the growers received from $1.15 to $1.60 the box for oranges shipped not later than December 15. ## HERRERA NOW THE FAVORITE.

SPORTS PICK MEXICAN TO DO UP
"YOUNG CORBETT."

Prevailing Price is Ten to Nine on the Bakersfield Lad Whose Terrible Wallop is Counted Upon to Bring Home the Money—Looks Like a Knock-out Sure.

Betting on tonight's battle between "Young Corbett" and Aurelio Herrera took a turn in the Mexican's favor yesterday, the odds closing at 10 to 9 on the Bakersfield champion.

This, notwithstanding a rumor that became prevalent yesterday to the effect that Aurelio was badly drunk in a local bath-house the night before.

The story seems to have been without any foundation whatever, though Ma-nuero, Aurelio's brother, might have been celebrating a little bit in honor of the coming victory of his able relative.

All kinds of Herrera money was on tap yesterday at the Spring street commissioners' headquarters, but the backers of "Young Corbett" were not in the least discouraged.

It happened Tuesday morning at Julian, San Diego county. It was at the mine of the Julian Consolidated Mining Company of which Mr. Boswell was superintendent. Slayey Pettit, a workman, lost his life in the same accident.

The company was engaged in running a drift, or tunnel from the bottom of one shaft to the bottom of another over 500 feet distant. The tunnel was about six feet high and four feet wide. This level tunnel was being bored from the new shaft toward the old one. From the old one was an old tunnel running toward the new one but at an upward slant. The new tunnel had reached a point where it was about three feet below the old one.

THE TRAGEDY IN THE TUNNEL.
At 7 o'clock Tuesday morning Boswell and several men started to place timbers. These consist of two posts of twelve inches or more in diameter placed upright one on each side of the tunnel opposite each other and a cap lying across and resting on the tops of the posts.

Boswell had his arm about a post which he had placed in position and was holding it steady when he was other post in position. Just then the cave came.

One of earth, timber and boulders came down. The debris threw Pettit to a prostrate position and killed him instantly. Boswell was jammed against the side of the tunnel with his arm still about the post caught as in a vise.

Robert Walker, a miner, had a foot caught in the falling earth and timber, but managed within a few minutes to wrench it loose.

For nine hours the victim and rescuers suffered tortures of suspense.
The operation of freeing Boswell from the earth, timber and boulders that hemmed him in required all the skill of experienced miners working only at a time in shifts of two or three minutes each and under the greatest difficulty.

PITIFUL ECONOMY OF AIR.
In the cramped space they worked, exceeding the greatest economy of the pitifully small supply of air which one of their number fanned vigorously was able to force to the shut-in place where they were digging desperately to relieve Boswell from his precarious situation.

Even the candles were used sparingly
so that the precious oxygen might be exhausted as slowly as possible.

Fifteen or twenty inches in front of Boswell, who remained conscious through all the perilous hours, and a little above him on the mass of debris was a boulder weighing probably over a ton. If that rolled toward him there would be no more hope.

When the cave-in occurred Boswell was entirely covered with earth. The first effort of the rescuers was to clear the dirt away from his head and face so he could get the poor air which the tunnel afforded.

That done they cleared it away from his chest to relieve the fearful pressure of which he complained.

When the treacherous mass had been removed from about most of his body
it was found that a still more difficult task remained to be accomplished.

One arm was free, but the other was so tight wound about the timber jammed against the side of the tunnel that it was a matter of days before it could be freed.

To attempt to knock the timber away
would have been to invite a death.

TUNNEL CRASH, SLOW DEATH.

Struggle to Save.

dealing cave of the mass of debris.
The only alternative was to cut the timber both above and below the man's arm.

HORROR OF CHISELING.
In the frightfully small space it was not possible to use a saw, and so the men worked with a chisel. Bit by bit they cut away chips. That had to be done with infinite care, for a false stroke meant a deep cut in the arm of the victim.

So great was his relief that, although his condition was critical, he at once fell asleep. Death came the next morning.

While the workers were striving to get Boswell out alive, others cleared the earth from about the body of Pettit. They carried the corpse to a safe place in the tunnel and left it there until they rescued Boswell. Practically everybody in the town and for miles around was about the top of the shaft waiting for news from below.

Boswell's wife was there, and, in consideration for her, it was thought not best to have a dead body hauled up the shaft while her husband was himself in the very jaws of death. Cleveland King, mining foreman, and J. R.
Carlton, were among those who assisted in the freeing of Boswell.

DOCTOR'S MAD FLIGHT.
Soon after the accident a telephone message was sent to Dr. Hunt of San Diego, and he started for Julian in an automobile. Over the fifty-eight miles of mountain road and up an ascent of over 4000 feet he flew in an actual running time of three and one-half hours.

The coroner's jury found that Boswell's death was due to accident and was produced by shock and exposure.

One of the harrowing facts was that Pettit had just finished paying for a home for his parents near San Francisco.

Mr. Boswell was born in Texas. He came to California at the age of 10.
He had been engaged in mining for twenty-two years. At the Julian mine he had almost completed the installation of a $50,000 plant.

For nearly two years the lot of the family has been a sad one. Not only was Mr. Boswell severely injured in the same mine, but death claimed two of his sons. His wife was held in high esteem by his associates.

The funeral will take place at Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Tenth and Figueroa streets at 2 p.m. Friday.

WANT LICENSES RAISED.
The retail merchants are continuing their campaign for the adoption of the two ordinances proposed by them; one to prohibit the standing of peddlers and hucksters' wagons and carts in certain portions of the city, and selling therefrom; and the other amending the ordinance providing for licensing this class of vehicles and tradesmen, so that they shall be required to pay at the rate of $100 per annum for each wagon, cart or other vehicle used in peddling.

The retail merchants are asking the support of the citizens for this measure on the grounds that at present these peddlers are enabled to conduct their business at a simple outlay of $5 per month for city license, while the retail merchants are at the expense of special taxes, lights, rent, hire of help, water rates, etc., and have to come into direct competition with the men who do not have these expenses. The territory in which the merchants would have peddling prohibited includes practically all of the downtown retail district.

DYING MINER ROBBED'S VICTIM.

IS ASSAULTED ON THE RAILROAD NEAR VICTORVILLE.

Approaching Freight Train Frightened Assailant to Flee from His Intended Prey—Latter Is Taken to San Bernardino County Hospital. Elopement Causes Flurry.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 11.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) James Jennings, a Goldfield miner, is dying at the County Hospital tonight of injuries received at the hands of a Mexican bent on robbery and murder. The assailant is under arrest at Victorville, and will be brought here tomorrow morning by Constable Dolch.

Jennings had made a stake at Goldfield. He was shipping his money to Los Angeles by Wells-Fargo, and was walking to San Bernardino, having prospecting on the way. At Victorville he met the Mexican, and they journeyed together.

Two miles out of Victorville the Mexican suddenly assaulted Jennings with a length of iron. His left temple was laid open, his face crushed in, and his arm fractured. The assailant then bound Jennings' hands and feet, and the bound freight happened along, scaring the Mexican off.

Jennings was brought in on the train, reaching the hospital this evening. The doctors don't think he will survive.

ELOPEMENT IS TOLD.

Another elopement has taken place from among the younger society set, the news of which has just leaked out, though the marriage was performed a week ago. The contracting parties are Miss Mamie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. James Corcoran, proprietor of the Emerson Hotel, and George R. Parker, a popular Santa Fe fireman.

Three days after the romantic bride's father had been laid away in the cemetery the young girl prevailed upon her widowed mother to permit her to visit wealthy relatives in Los Angeles. In the same train, waiting impatiently in another coach for the train to leave, was Parker.

At Phoenix, they secured a license and were married, delaying the new home for three days. They expect to reside permanently in Phoenix. The bride's father was a prominent member of numerous fraternal organizations, both in this city and Oakland.

SAN BERNARDINO BRIEFS.

James Craig of Olinde yesterday fell from a swing set at the school grounds and fractured his right leg between the knee and ankle. He had just recovered from a badly-fractured arm, sustained in a fall from the same swing.

J. Harold Powell, pomologist in charge of the fruit transportation and storage, United States Department of Agriculture, is here making extended investigation of the factors which influence the carrying capacity of citrus fruits in transportation, with a view of reducing the loss. ## AN EXTORTION, MOTORISTS SAY.

GARAGE LICENSE RAISES LOUD
HOWL FROM AUTOMOBILISTS.

Not Fair, and They Will Not Pay It, Dealers Declare in Open Meeting at Lankershim—Details for the Coming Hill Climb are Announced. Race Meet Rather Quiet.

The recent ordinance affixing a tax of $5 a month on all garages and repair shops is regarded as a most unfair discrimination by the motorists, and is being fought by the automobile dealers in their session at the Lankershim Hotel. The ordinance was passed by the city council on January 8, and is now in the hands of the city clerk for filing.

Another matter that is agitating the trade is a great deal in the need of better police service downtown and less of it in the suburbs, where there are so few people likely to be hurt. Downtown car accidents are more frequent than in the suburbs, where there are so few people likely to be hurt.

It is argued that some of the "cops" who lie in wait behind trees on West Washington street and Pasadena avenue, and perhaps on other main streets, are more interested in the money they can make in the sale of their services than in the safety of the public.

The race meet will be held about the middle of February, but no details were arranged, as there is some difference of opinion regarding the matter in the association.

The Pasadena hill climb of February 22 will start on Los Robles avenue and finish at the head of Lake avenue in Altadena. Six classes are made. One class above $1500 are one; a runabout free for all, third in four cars; a class also is provided for machines costing under $1500, under $2500 and over $2500. All cars must carry loaded weight equal to their displacement.

Prizes and trophies are being arranged by the committee. The committee is making arrangements for the race meet, which will be held about the middle of February.

FEW TEARS FOR HENRY HARRIS.

PASSING OF THE SAN FRANCISCO
MANAGER NO SHOCK.

Old-Timer Never Set Many Baseball Records on Fire and Caused Comment by Allowing Betting on Ball Games—Latest League Rumor Kicks Oakland Out of League.

The passing of Henry Harris, better known as Hank the Penman, from any active role in the Pacific Coast Baseball League, is not surprising to many fans in Los Angeles and the general opinion is that his going will be a good thing for the sport in general. For the past several years he has been a "peanut" player.

Harris has had very poor luck with the San Francisco team for several years and one of the principal reasons for this is that he allowed gambling on the games played in San Francisco. He has been a "peanut" player for many years.

The syndicate secured control of numerous water rights in Northern Part of the State.

Brown, Wilson & Co. of New York and San Francisco, after almost two years of active negotiations, have finally succeeded in closing a deal with large and prominent financial interests in New York, whereby between twenty and thirty thousand acres of land and numerous water rights on the Feather River in California have been purchased for the purpose of developing in excess of three hundred thousand acre-feet of water power for distribution throughout Central and Northern California. The properties covered by this purchase embrace those of the Big Bend Tunnel and Mining Company and the Eureka Power Company, located in Butte county and the project of the Western Power Company, known as Big Meadows, located in Plumas county. The syndicate organized to take over the properties has completed its work and the lands above mentioned have been acquired by them. The actual work of development will be pushed to completion as rapidly as human ingenuity and unlimited capital can make it. The syndicate managers are Messrs. Frank H. Ray, chairman; Edwin Hawley and Alfred C. Bedford, all New York men, who have associated with them in the enterprise some twelve other financiers.

LEAP OF FOREMAN.

Former Los Angeles Man Returns to This City After Having Risen to Prominence.

From foreman of a construction gang to the head of a large electrical firm in the short space of three years is pretty rapid advancement, but that is what A. S. Landrum, now staying at the Angelus, has accomplished.

Three years ago Mr. Landrum was the foreman of a gang of six linemen in the employ of the Los Angeles Home Telephone Company. He worked for the company during the early days of its existence and was rated as a good foreman. When he left here three years ago he went to Chicago, where he became connected with one of the largest wholesale electrical supply and manufacturing houses in that city.

When the electrical building at the Home Telephone Company was completed the authorities began looking around for a competent man to put in charge of the work. Mr. Landrum was chosen, and throughout the construction he had charge of all of the electrical exhibits at the fair.

This is Mr. Landrum's first trip west since he left here three years ago. He is accompanied by C. W. Hinch, chief of the telephone company, and the Sunset Telephone Company in Los Angeles, with whom he is associated in a number of Arizona business ventures.

Essential

A proper examination is the first essential; it is the foundation to a cure. It is the only way to get started right. It leads to cures with positive assurance. I make definite claims for my method of treatment.

Weakness

Decline of functional activity, strength and vitality is nearly always traceable to a disturbance of the functions of the reproductive system. Under my treatment functional equilibrium is restored, the nerve irritation reduced, the circulation is increased, and strength renewed. My cures are absolute and permanent.

Varicocele Cured in 5 to 6 days

Many men have treated for varicocele by the common methods used and have hoped that nature would assist in re-establishing the normal condition, but not one to my knowledge have had their cures permanent. I have cured many such cases as have been employed for years, and my method is the only one that gives strength which they can all afford to lose.

Nervous Worn-Out

If you are in this condition, your nerve force is weak—the power is giving out, the organs of your body have "slowed up," and do their work imperfectly. This failure to do the work required, clogs the system and brings distress and disease. When the nerves are weak the heart is unable to force the life-giving blood through your veins; the stomach fails to digest food; the kidneys lack power to filter impurities from the blood, and the poisonous waste remains in the system to breed disease. Nerve energy must be restored. Dr. Miles' Nerve will do it, because it strengthens the nerves; it is a nerve medicine and tonic, that rebuilds the entire nervous system.

"Several years ago I was all broken down. I was nervous, worn-out, could not sleep, and was in constant pain. I doctor for months, and finally the doctor said he could do nothing for me. I was then told of Dr. Miles' Nerve, and used it for eight months, and now weigh 170 pounds. I feel like a new man, and am able to do my work."—J. C. GUNNINGHAM, 108 Milwaukee, Chicago, Ill.

CALL FOR BONDS IN REDONDO.

TRUSTEES PROPOSE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Eighty Thousand Assigned for Septic Outfall Sewer System and Twenty Thousand for City Hall.
Fire Takers Noted Landmark—Car-
shop Workmen Has Hand Maimed.

REDONDO, Jan. 11.—At a meeting of the Board of City Trustees last night, the preliminary resolution for the bonding of the city for $80,000 for a septic outfall sewer system, and $20,000 for a City Hall, were adopted.
Ordinance calling an election will be introduced at the next meeting.

DESTROYED LANDMARK.

The fire which took place here last evening destroyed one of the old landmarks, a building which was erected many years before Redondo was a town, and known to all pioneers throughout the county. Parts of the walls were made of brick which had been brought from the Horn in the early days from New York. It was one of the buildings belonging to the old salt works, and associated with many of the early events of California's history.

It had been for the past year occupied by Charles Phillips, an artist, who was left destitute. The cause of the blaze was the upsetting of a lamp.

HAND IS MAIMED.

J. Pitts, an employee in the car shops of the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway Company, while engaged in the manipulation of a circular saw, today, accidentally had his thumb, index and middle fingers of the left hand completely severed. The maimed hand was attended to by Dr. Hancock.

SAN PEDRO.

CITY EXTENSION DEFEATED.

SAN PEDRO, Jan. 11.—The special election held today on the question of extending the city to embrace about 3000 acres lying westerly and southerly from the present limits resulted in defeat for the annexation. In the city there were eighty-one votes cast in favor of annexation and three against. In the territory proposed to be added to the town there were ten votes cast for annexation and thirteen against it, thereby defeating the proposition.

HARBOR CITY DRIFT.

For the second time in two days the local fire department has been called out to extinguish a blaze in the Griffin Block at the corner of Fifth and Beacon streets. Soon after 4 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the La Plant barber shop next door to the San Pedro Bakery which burned early yesterday morning. The loss was $800 with $150 insurance. An examination proved that the fire was due to spontaneous combustion.

"Happy Hooligan" held the boards
at the Wetherby Opera-house last night but in the middle of the performance the show was rudely interrupted owing to the fact that the box receipts had been attacked by Constable Carlson.
Upon suit brought for rent by Mrs. E.
A. Graham against Chancery Puffer, manager of the house, Puffer's share of the receipts amounting to $28 were transferred to the pocket of the officer.

ALHAMBRA.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE COMING.

ALHAMBRA, Jan. 11.—J. R. Neff of Anaheim, conductor of Farmers' Institute in Southern California, under suspense of the State University, was in Alhambra today consulting with the local committee for a Farmers' Institute to be held in this city. R. F.
Bishop, Jack Borden, Ira Carr, Morion
